Bangalore 27th March 1909

My dear Sir

Mr Narasinga Rao Pivnanya was promoted to the 3rd class of Asst. Comrs (old Schedule B on 300 Rs) on 12th april 1906 and he would be entitled to promotion to the 2nd class (on 375 Rs under the Civil Service Rules of 1891) with effect from 12th april 1908 Should the service rendered by him during the period be approved.

The half yearly confidential reports for June of and December 1908

are favourable than for December 1907 is not very favourable while the opinion furnished by Mr Srikanteswara Iyer and yourself in July 07 shows that he was not considered an efficient officer

As the question of Mr V. Purnaiya's promotion to the 2nd class is now pending I am desired to request you to kindly state whether you would consider the service rendered by him during the two years from 12th april 1906 to 12th april 1908 as approved service

To facilitate reference I enclose an extract from the confl report which may kindly be returned with your reply.

Yours sincerely
